This job is a great way to get involved in the retail world and grow your career with a well-known brand like Sainsbury's. If you're looking for Sainsbury's Jobs, this role could be just what you're looking for!

Key Responsibilities

As a Trading Assistant at Sainsbury's, you will have many important duties to carry out. Below are some of your main responsibilities:

Stock Replenishment

One of your key tasks will be ensuring the shelves are always stocked with products. You will be responsible for checking stock levels and restocking shelves to keep the store well-organized.

Customer Service

Providing great customer service is very important. You will assist customers in finding the products they need and answer any questions they may have. If customers need help, you will make sure they receive the best assistance.

Store Display Maintenance

Keeping the store tidy and visually appealing is also part of your job. You will make sure that all products are correctly displayed and arranged. This will help create an enjoyable shopping experience for our customers.

Price Checking

Another task involves checking prices on products and making sure they are accurate. You will need to stay on top of any price changes and update them when needed.

Health and Safety

Ensuring the store is safe for both customers and employees is important. You will follow health and safety guidelines to help prevent accidents and make sure the store is clean and safe at all times.
